SCaLE 15x

The Fifteenth Annual Southern California Linux Expo

At The Pasadena Convention Center
300 E Green St, Pasadena, CA 91101
Thursday March 2 - Sunday March 5, 2017

Learn about some of the many ways open source software can be used in education, business, the home and much more with interesting tech presentations all weekend including tracks for:

* Saturday:   03/04   "The Next Generation"~ presentations by students under 18.
* Sunday:   03/05   "OSSIE"~ Open Source Software In Education

  * The Difference Free and Open Source Software Can Make in Your School

   * An Introduction by Gina Likins

   * Research on software use in Classrooms: Dr. Samuel Coleman

   * Tracking Learning Data using The Experience API and LRS: Kenneth Wyrick

* The Power of Open Source to Transform Your Student's Learning

   * Free Software at Scale - Learning Transformation Powered by Open Source: Jim Klein

   * Technology Overload: Saving Classrooms From Pervasive Tech Run Amok: Robinson Tryon

* Hands on Open Source = Learning By Doing

   * Raspberry Pi Hacks: Tips & Tools for Making Things with the Inexpensive Linux Computer
   * Tom Callaway and Ruth Suehle

* International Opportunities In Open Source Education

   * Cultivating Sustainable Communities: Kids on Computers in Oaxaca, Mexico: Avni Khatri

   * Internet in a Box: "Arms Dealers for the Peace Corps": Adam Holt and Tim Moody

* Friday afternoon through Sunday Afternoon 03/03 - 03-05

Exhibit Hall open with exhibits of software, hardware, books, gadgets, demonstrations, ideas and swag

* Friday & Saturday evenings: interest groups, lightning talks, fun events